

Mr. Torrisi of North Andover then moved that the amendment be amended by adding the following paragraph:

“Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall not take effect until such time as the executive office for administration and finance and the department of revenue has furnished a study of its impact on the state’s economy and revenue cost to the commonwealth, including, but not limited to, a distributional analysis showing the impact on taxpayers of varying income levels, the current practice of other states, any anticipated change in employment and ancillary economic activity to the house and senate committees on ways and means and until legislation has been filed and passed pursuant to Part 2, Chap. 1, Sec. 1, Art. II of the Constitution.”
